

Courage

Kyla La Grange

[Verse 1]

You say you like my conversation over again
But you don't love me
You say I have a heart of gold and a body that you long to hold
And it kills me
You say you like my company, you spend all my time
But you don't love me
And I know if I sailed a thousand seas and threw myself down on my knees
You'd leave me

[Pre-Chorus]

I think maybe there's a hole in your soul
I think maybe there's a hole in your soul

[Chorus]

Hold your hands up, don't leave me hanging on you
Hold your hands up, don't leave me waiting on you
Courage will you come to my aid?
Oh, courage will you come to my aid?

[Verse 2]

You hide a hundred implications under your skin
And you don't love me
You run your fingers through my hair, and hurt the heart I have laid bare
And everybody sees
I build you into all my plans with hope at my heels
But you don't love me
You say you cannot help yourself, that your emotions cannot swell
And I can't make you feel

[Pre-Chorus]

I think maybe there's a hole in your soul
I think maybe there's a hole in your soul

[Chorus]

Hold your hands up, don't leave me hanging on you
Hold your hands up, don't leave me waiting on you
Courage will you come to my aid?
Oh, courage will you come to my aid?

Hold your hands up, don't leave me hanging on you
Hold your hands up, don't leave me waiting on you
Courage will you come to my aid?
Oh, courage will you come to my aid?
