

Catalyst

Kyla La Grange

[Verse 1]

Come in take your coat off, I'll sit you down
I've watched you from shadows, I made no sound
I'll light you a fire, your hands are cracked
I've slashed all your tires, you cannot go back

[Pre-Chours]

Oh nobody caught me yet, I hope that you will
And all of us are drawn by lust to kill and to be killed
I see it in your eyes

[Chours]

And all our skin burned so fast
I'll give you a love that cannot last
And all our eyes light like flames
I need you to forever call my name

[Verse 2]

Lie down take your clothes off and let me stare
I've watched you for hours, my eyes stripped you bare
Stop me from crying, I shouldn't keep you there
For all that I needed, I need you not to care

[Pre-Chours]

Oh nobody caught me yet, I hope that you will
And all of us are drawn by lust to kill and to be killed
Oh nobody caught me yet, I hope that you will
And all of us return to dust and that's what makes me ill
Do you see it in my eyes?

[Chours]

And all our skin burned so fast
I'll give you a love that cannot last
And all our eyes light like flames
I need you to forever call my name

And all our skin burned so fast
I'll give you a love that cannot last
And all our eyes light like flames

I need you to forever call my name

Lyrics provided by <https://www.songlyrics.band/>