Supermarket Flowers

Ed Sheeran

I took the supermarket flowers from the windowsill
I threw the day old tea from the cup
Packed up the photo album Matthew had made
Memories of a life that's been loved
Took the get well soon cards and stuffed animals
Poured the old ginger beer down the sink

Dad always told me, "Don't you cry when you're down"
But mum, there's a tear every time that I blinkOh I'm in pieces, it's tearing me up, but I know

A heart that's broke is a heart that's been loved

So I'll sing Hallelujah

You were an angel in the shape of my mum When I fell down you'd be there holding me up

Spread your wings as you go

And when God takes you back we'll say Hallelujah You're homeFluffed the pillows, made the beds, stacked the chairs up

Folded your nightgowns neatly in a case

John says he'd drive then put his hand on my cheek

And wiped a tear from the side of my faceI hope that I see the world as you did 'cause I know A life with love is a life that's been livedSo I'll sing Hallelujah

You were an angel in the shape of my mum When I fell down you'd be there holding me up Spread your wings as you go

And when God takes you back we'll say Hallelujah

You're home Hallelujah

You were an angel in the shape of my mum
You got to see the person I have become Spread your wings and I know
That when God took you back he said Hallelujah

You're home
