

Lie Down

James Arthur

Do my eyes deceive me?
Yea, I never saw a creature like you
But I 'm confused so I am brave
I'm brave enough to tell you "you are one hot motherfucker!" And I don't wanna marry you
And I don't wanna see you sleep
I just wanna, I just wanna take you home
So lie down baby, lie down baby
Lie down baby, lie down baby I just don't believe it
Why would you dance with a brother like me?
But she got her blues on, maybe she was blind
But I don't give a fuck 'cause tonight you're mine
And I don't wanna marry you
And I don't wanna see you sleep
I just wanna, I just wanna take you home
So lie down baby, lie down baby
Lie down baby, lie down baby Lie down baby, let me show you what I want
Lie down... lie lie down
Oh lie down baby, let me show you what it's all about
Oh I just wanna take... I just wanna take you on yea
Lie down baby, let me show you what I want
Oh I just wanna take... I just wanna take you on yea And I don't wanna marry you
And I don't wanna see you sleep
I just wanna, I just wanna take you home
So lie down baby, lie down baby
Lie down baby, lie down baby
Lie down baby, lie down baby
Lie down baby, lie down baby
Lie down baby, lie down baby
Lie down baby, lie down baby
Lie down baby
