

Guns and Roses (feat. P!nk)

T.I.

Hey, have you ever loved somebody so much you can't stand it but can't do without 'em?

Do anything for 'em cause you truly do adore 'em

Like dedicate songs, write poems

But they be on that bullshit and you try to ignore 'em

But you feel like they feel like you ain't right for 'em

Therefore your heart's torn

Between bein' with 'em forever, leavin' 'em never

But it seem like you arguin', fightin' over whatever

Maybe we can leave, find someone better

Even though you will, you never know nothin' better

My heart say "nah, she can't leave, won't let her"

Been head over heels since the very day I met her

Feel so deep in love I ain't been able to get up

Sometimes I want some peace of mind and she don't shut up

Love her to death, don't know whether to kiss her or kill her

Should've known it

From the start it was already over

We were just too dumb to notice

And we'd pray but

Even love couldn't save us

We'd wake up

On a bed of guns and roses

And we don't know which one to choose

When either way, we're gonna lose

Still we'd pray but

Even love couldn't save us

We'd wake up

On a bed of guns and roses

Hah, I guess I'd rather suffer with her than be miserable without her

I ball out of Prada, Gucci and Balenciaga

They keep her content, you keep down the nonsense

With every corner we turn, around the conflict

Mostly dumb shit, like who she run with

Where the fuck you been? Your pants - they don't fit

Really, honestly speaking, some things I don't get

No matter how much she try she can't make it make more sense

Therefore, here we go again

Screamin', yellin' at the top of our lungs, she goin' in

Seeing the kind of shit I be like "if you was a man

I would go in your shit, for real, no shit"

But I love her so much that I can't forget

That the feel of a kiss, it could heal when I'm sick

Still, I don't like to feel like this
If I wouldn't miss her, I would try to get a kill right there
Should've known it
From the start it was already over
We were just too dumb to notice
And we'd pray but
Even love couldn't save us
We'd wake up
On a bed of guns and roses
And we don't know which one to choose
When either way, we're gonna lose
Still we'd pray but
Even love couldn't save us
We'd wake up
On a bed of guns and roses
Every time we say our goodbyes
A little piece of my heart breaks off inside
I don't really ever know why
If I could live without you I'd try
Should've known it
From the start it was already over
We were just too dumb to notice
And we'd pray but
Even love couldn't save us
We'd wake up
On a bed of guns and roses
And we don't know which one to choose
When either way, we're gonna lose
Still we'd pray but
Even love couldn't save us
We'd wake up
