

Stupid

Levi Hummon

I don't care what the talk is Ain't sure what the truth is
Don't wanna overthink a kiss, yeah

I just know when it feels right
I just miss what you felt like
We can add this up when the sun shines
But tonight, but tonight

I wanna be stupid
I don't want things to make sense
I don't wanna be right
Don't wanna move on
Don't wanna waste time
Don't wanna be strong
I wanna be reckless
And a little bit dangerous
Don't wanna be shy
Don't wanna back down
Don't wanna be cool
Don't wanna be proud
I wanna be stupid, stupid
With you

Your eyes give it all up
So let's see what they're made of
Don't have to fall back into love, no
Sometimes you just need a good time
Some hearts just need to rewind
We're too young, and we're too high
Not to be dumb, not to be blind and

Stupid
I don't want things to make sense
I don't wanna be right
Don't wanna move on
Don't wanna waste time
Don't wanna be strong
I wanna be reckless
And a little bit dangerous

Don't wanna be shy
Don't wanna back down
Don't wanna be cool
Don't wanna be proud
I wanna be stupid
I wanna be stupid
With you

Let's go another round when the sun comes up
Loving how your lips just shut me up
But I can't shut up the crazy inside my head

I wanna be stupid
Don't wanna move on
Don't wanna be proud
With you

I wanna be stupid, stupid
With you
Get stupid, stupid
With you
