

Fallen

Jason Derulo

You are the one who makes it
Worth waking up in the morning
I'd trade the sun
For the chance to show you im more than
We could be like jay and beyonce
Bonnie and clyde just like a movie
Take that chance on love Now i cant predict what the future holds
But i will fight forever to keep you close
Id give it all up baby
Trade in the world to show im fallen
Im fallen yea
Dont need the fame or money As long as i got you girl im fallen Im fallen tell all them other girls ive fallen Put me to the test Ill prove to you ill never be a heart ache
Cause your the best you deserve the best
Rule this world like michelle and barack
Be my girl we'll end up on top
Take that chance on love
Now i cant predict what the future holds
But i will fight forever to keep you close
Id give it all up baby
Trade in the world to show im fallen
Im fallen yea
Dont need the fame or money
Long as i got you girl im fallen
Im fallen tell all them other girls ive fallen
I want the world to see
So i bring you nice jewelry
To show you im not ashamed
Im fallen im fallen
Im tellin all them other girls
And everybody around the world
Ive told you girl
Im not ashamed im fallen fallen
Ill give it all up baby
Trade in the world to show
Im fallen im fallen
Id give it all up baby
Trade in the world to show
Im fallen im fallen yea
Dont need the fame or money
As long as i got you girl
Im fallen im fallen

Tell all them other girls
Tell all them other girls
Ive fallen
