

Dear Me

Slushii

[Verse]

Dear me, it's okay to shed a tear once in a while
All these moments spent with her stretch on for miles
You've been through this hell and lived to tell the tale
Hold on tight, your story's waiting to set sail

[Chorus]

Dear me, I'm coming undone
I feel the ground beneath my feet begin to crumble
To the sound of the ensemble in our dreams
Dear me, I'm putting to rest
I'll never let you slip away
The thought of you will never fade
As long as you're here, I'm okay

[Verse]

Dear me, it's okay to shed a tear once in a while
All these moments spent with her stretch on for miles
You've been through this hell and lived to tell the tale
Hold on tight, your story's waiting to set sail

[Chorus]

Dear me, I'm coming undone
I feel the ground beneath my feet begin to crumble
To the sound of the ensemble in our dreams
Dear me, I'm putting to rest
I'll never let you slip away
The thought of you will never fade
As long as you're here, I'm okay

[Outro]

Lead my hand, I will never fade away
Bring it up, bring it up now
I'm going down faster than the wind carries me
