

Million Pieces

Bastille

I breath in hard
Don't speak cos it's like a bitter pill
You blow my mind, you make my heart beat
Harder, harder, harder, hardThe king's a clown
No one is laughing it's not a drill
Just look outside the world is ending
Faster, faster, faster, faster, fastThe echoes of that news ring loud (the echoes, the echoes)
No sound can ever drown it out (the echoes)It breaks my heart, breaks my heart into
A million pieces
Oh, it breaks my heart into a million pieces
If it's gonna break me won't you let me go?
Leave it till the morning, I don't wanna know.
Breaks my heart, breaks my heart into
A million pieces
We're too far gone
Nothing I say will mean anything
Let's drink, fuck, dance right through disaster
I don't wanna talk about it nowThe echoes of that news ring loud (the echoes, the echoes)
No sound can ever drown it out (the echoes)It breaks my heart, breaks my heart into
A million pieces
Oh, it breaks my heart into a million piecesIf it's gonna break me won't you let me go?
Leave it till the morning, I don't wanna know.
Breaks my heart, breaks my heart into
A million piecesGet fear and loathing out your mind
And don't pull me, don't pull me down from the ceiling
It breaks my heart, breaks my heart into
A million pieces
Oh, it breaks my heart into a million pieces
If it's gonna break me won't you let me go?
Leave it till the morning, I don't wanna know.
Breaks my heart, breaks my heart into
A million pieces
