Anna of the North

Sometimes I feel like you don't know me
You got something else on your mind
Sometimes I feel so goddamn lonely
I don't think I'm strong enough
Fighting for the both of usTell me where, tell me where, where we went wrong
I don't think I'm strong enough for us
I don't think I'm strong enough for us
Tell me where, tell me where the love has gone
I don't really wanna give it up
I don't really wanna give it up
Sometimes I see you see right through me
You don't hear nothing that I say
You always lying and trying to ruin me
I don't think I'm strong enough
Throwing, now I batter up
Throwing, now I batter upTell me where, tell me where, where we went wrong
I don't think I'm strong enough for us
I don't think I'm strong enough for us
Tell me where, tell me where the love has gone
I don't really wanna give it up
I don't really wanna give it up
Tell me where, tell me where, where we went wrong
I don't think I'm strong enough for us
I don't think I'm strong enough for us
Tell me where, tell me where the love has gone
I don't really wanna give it up
I don't really wanna give it up
