

Biggest Fan

Fisher

Do you have love
Enough for the whole world?
You go out -You hide out
We all want to know youEvery once in awhile
You sign a photographAnd if I met you on the street
Would you be really nice to me
Or would you ignore me and make me feel stupid?
I feel like a know you like a friend
-seen every movie you've been in
But if you ignore me I'll hate you cause I am
Your biggest fan
I love
Your garbage
To touch it
Is to touch youEvery once in awhile
I sell a piece for cashAnd if you saw me on your street
Would you be really nice to me
Or would you start screaming and have me arrested?
You know that I love you like a friend
-love every song you ever sing
But if you start screaming I'll hate you cause I am
Your biggest fan
And if I called you on the phone
Would you say, "Hey, how are ya' doin'?"
Or would you hang up in my face like an asshole?
You know I'd do anything for you
No one knows you like I do
But if you ignore me you'll lose me - and I am
Your biggest fan - I'm Your biggest fan
