

Good As You Think I Am

Ryan Hurd

[Verse 1]

There's promises I never kept
Too many prayers I never said
Some dreams I broke, some hearts I bent
I've been to hell and back again

[Pre-Chorus]

I never felt like my roots ran deep
I never had much of anything figured out
But somehow

[Chorus]

You think I'm an anchor, some kind of savior
Something stronger, something braver
You see an answer where it ain't
And a halo where I can't
I wanna be as good as you think I am
Someday, I'll be as good as you think I am

[Verse 2]

I wanna feel like I belong
On the bitter stuff you put me on Ain't made it yet, but I want to
'Cause everything you see, I see in you

[Chorus]

You think I'm an anchor, some kind of savior
Something stronger, something braver
You see an answer where it ain't
And a halo where I can't
I wanna be as good as you think I am
Someday, I'll be as good as you think I am

[Chorus]

You think I'm an anchor, some kind of savior
Something stronger, something braver
You see an answer where it ain't
And a halo where I can't
I wanna be as good as you think I am

Someday, I'll be as good as you think I am
