Art of It

Hellbaby

[verse 1]
Speak it into existence
Mo' money, mo' power, mo'
Mo' inner peace, mo' self control
Nigga tell me do you know what you're living for Know where you've been and where you're finna go
If you see the bigger picture, see I'm finna blow
Wait
Aw shit I already did
Now I wish that I can blow my brother out the fucking pen
You niggas just a lil too relaxed, I can hear it in your raps
Rest of y'all I can see it in your face
Have a real nigga feeling hella out of place
Found my inner space, it look just like outer space
Only God can judge me and murder was the case
Boy you was killing it, boy you had the whole world feeling it
I'm pretty sure that that's what she would say
Fuck what people say

[hook]
Promise you will never understand cause you're too afraid to try
How you ever gonna really live if you're so afraid to die
Die die
I promise, you don't know how to lose you ain't ever gon win
Already saw the bottom, I don't ever want to see that shit again
Already saw the bottom, I don't ever want to see that shit again no
I promise, you don't know how to lose you ain't ever gon win no
How you ever gonna really live if you're so afraid to die
Die die
Promise you will never understand cause you're too afraid to try

[verse 2]
See im all out of feelings these days
Didn't use to be this way
Till niggas started playing with the payment
Ill weigh it, Ill count it, don't play me
See im all about a dollar these days
It didn't use to be this way
I used to be all about the spirit
Nowadays I don't even wanna hear it

Talked to the devil, he don't want your soul
Get a grip, be the mothafuckin man
Get a life my nigga make plans for it
Don't be asking for the truth you can't handle it
Truth is, you a bitch...and thats cool...well not really
But shit it ain't me, thats you..what you gon do? its not pretty muhfucka
