Billie Eilish

Told you not to worry
But maybe that's a lie
Honey, what's your hurry?
Won't you stay inside Remember not to get too close to stars
They're never gonna give you love like ours Where did you go?
I should know
But it's cold and I don't
Wanna be lonely so show me the way home
I can't lose another life
Hurry, I'm worried
The world's a little blurry
Or maybe it's my eyes
The friends I've had to bury
They keep me up at night Said I couldn't love someone
'Cause I might break
If you're gonna die, not by mistake Where did you go?
I should know
But it's cold and I don't
Wanna be lonely so tell me you'll come home
Even if it's just a lie I tried not to upset you
Let you rescue me the day I met you
I just wanted to protect you
But now I'll never get to
Where did you go?
I should know
But it's cold and I don't
Wanna be lonely, was hoping you'd come home
I don't care if it's a lie
