

Raining Men (feat. Nicki Minaj)

Rihanna

[Rihanna]

Eenie, meenie, minie, mo

Catch a playa by a toe

If ya want to, let him go Ladies don't worry 'cause they got plenty more

Men be falling like the rain so we ain't running out

Falling like the rain so we ain't running out

Falling like the rain so we ain't running out

Always raining men, girl, what you worried 'bout? Who you think you getting with that "Hi, let me freak ya"

You got me mistaken thinkin' you gon' get it easy

First of all you need to know that I'm not the one

Think you getting something baby, you ain't getting none

All you need to know that I'm a 2 times five

Load it, cock it, aim it baby, boom bye bye

Set your standards lower boy, you're aiming too high

Matter of fact your friend looks better so (huh) good bye Eenie, meenie, minie, mo

Catch a playa by a toe

If ya want to, let him go Ladies don't worry cause they got plenty more Men be falling like the rain so we ain't running out

Falling like the rain so we ain't running out

Falling like the rain so we ain't running out

[Nicki Minaj]

Ex-ex-excuse me but who are you fixing to be

Let them muthafuckas know there's plenty fish in the sea

And we sweating me just 'cause I got the tightest hoe

But I couldn't find that thing with a microscope Give me dom dom-da-da-da-da-dom-dom-dom

I ain't tripping on your money, money, long, long, long

Got my own TV production company

So tell her bout it hit me, silly

Anyway RiRi, what rhymes with your name freely? Money got you vacationing in Chile?

Do you wanna sit on my balcony like really really really

No for real, really?

Laid down on the beach, they be feeding me my catfishes

'Cause it's raining men

Fat bitches[Rihanna]
