

With You Tonight (Hasta El Amanecer)

Nicky Jam

Girl you know that I'll do anything
To know a little more than just your name
Only thing I know is you're too fine
And I would like to leave with you tonight. Girl you know that I'll do anything
To know a Little more than just your name
Only thing I know is you're too fine
And I would like to leave with you tonight. What's your name mamacita
My sweet señorita
So hot that you giving me the fever
So sexy, muy bonita
You'll make a none believe a believer.
Trust me girl you and me
That's that it's gotta be
I give you everything you need
Make you weak in your knees
You the baddest one I've ever seen
Tell me how you fit that in them jeans
Óyeme así así
Baby I can finally see
Girl you are so perfect to me
You'll remember this night of pleasure
I need you to come now with me Girl you know
That i'll do anything
To know a Little more than just your name
Only thing I know is you're too fine
And I would like to leave with you tonight. Want more than just your name
From where you came
Looking at you though me Ray-Ban Frames
Them girl a dime but girl you not the same

Everytime that you call me
You know I want you Baby. Girl you know

That I'll do anything
To know a Little more than just your name
Only thing I know is you're too fine
And I would like to leave with you tonight. Girl you know

That I'll do anything
To know a Little more than just your name
Only thing I know is you're too fine
And I would like to leave with you tonight. Girl you know

That I'll do anything
To know a little more than just your name
Only thing I know is you're too fine
And I would like to leave with you tonight. N.I.C.K
