

Rhythm Inside

Calum Scott

So many eyes, I can't see
I'm static, and I can't move my feet
From the moment that you stood next to me
Feeling manic, I forgot how to speak And there's a rhythm inside
That I can't slow down
In this moment in time
No, I won't stop now
I give up
My hand's up
For love
And there's a rhythm inside
That I can't slow down
In this moment in time
No, I won't stop now
I give up
My hand's up
For love It feels like I can be the one for your love
Come show me what you're feeling
It feels like I can be the one for your love
Come show me how you're feeling
Come show me, come show me what you're feeling
Come show me how you're feeling
(show me what you're feeling) Time, only knows how to heal
Feels like magic, I don't know if this is real
When the lights go out and my feet don't even wanna touch the ground
I feel the panic of my world turned upside down
There's a rhythm inside
That I can't slow down
In this moment in time
No, I won't stop now
I give up
My hand's up
For love And there's a rhythm inside
That I can't slow down
In this moment in time
No I won't stop now
I give up
My hand's up
For love It feels like I can be the one for your love
Come show me what you're feeling
It feels like I can be the one for your love
Come show me how you're feeling

Come show me, come show me what you're feeling
Come show me how you're feeling
(show me what you're feeling)
