

Question Everything

Five Finger Death Punch

She was a princess,
she could've been a queen,
she had the angels
beneath her broken wings,
she had the vision,
she had the sight,
she wants perfection,
she wants it right Who cares anymore what's right anymore I question everything, I won't lie,
I've never been ashamed,
I don't mind
admitting I'm to blame
I care no more,
I can't bear no more,
I'll say no more,
I cant give you any more
I Question Everything,
I Question Everything He lives in darkness,
there is no progress,
he knows the demons,
the lie within him,
he has no vision,
he has no sight,
he hates perfection,
it wasn't right! Who cares anymore, who's there anymore? I Question Everything! I won't lie, I've never been ashamed,
I don't mind
admitting I'm to blame
I care no more,
I can't bear no more,
I'll say no more,
I can't give you anymore! I Question Everything,
I Question Everything I Question Everything! I Question Everything!
I Question Everything! I Question Everything! I won't lie,
I've never been ashamed,
I Question Everything!
I don't mind
admitting I'm to blame
I Question Everything! I care no more,
I can't bear no more,

I'll say no more,
I can't give you anymore! I Question Everything!
