

Tell You Off (feat. Witt Lowry)

Devvon Terrell

You say the devil is a liar
Well it gotta be five, six, brown eyed chick
Got a way with her words, whatcha say, "Oh, I believe you"
There's so many parts to you that I never knew existed,
Oh baby till now, I'm sucha fool cuz I knew that
You changed, you changed
I've been peeped you away
And you're friends with all these niggas but I never complain (never complain)
I know it was more than just textin' your phone
Tell me why we just can't all get along
This ain't '95 thou
Feelin' like a new guy
Say goodbye to the good and hello to the bad guy
You put a bullet through my heart tho
So cold with the feelings, I'mma leave you outside tho
Burnin' and you just can't tell
You bout to go through it and baby oh welcome to hell.
Girl I do not mean to yell
I'm just talkin' how I feel Let me calm down, let me get right
I don't want you to see me this way
I don't wanna give you all this satisfaction
Of seeing me in pain
But I know you gonna see, oh girl one day you gonna see
That you had a good thing goin'
Never gonna find another nigga like me so
I just wanna tell you off,
Oh, I want you to know 'bout yourself, I just wanna tell you off,
I want you to know that you ain't right I really gotta tell you
I really gotta tell you
I just wanna tell you off
I just wanna tell you off Yo, no girl I don't wanna talk
Drop me off, why you pullin' in this parkin' lot?
See there's a lot of shit I wanna say
But I gotta try to refrain, because I'm bottlin' it up and then I use it as paint
To paint a picture of a girl with no morals or heart
I wanna tell you off but I rather tear you apart
Don't know where to start, remember when I sat in your car
And saw a hickey on your neck, you tried say it's a scar
Dummy, you're all lovey dovey, don't call me hubby
Don't say you love me, now we're over done
Sorry honey, oh your memory is fuzzy
Funny how it works, funny how I'm worth less than a meathead with no shirt

And you prefer blacking out over a bottle of wine
I prefer never wastin' my time
You see it's easy to find, A big ego with a bigger behind
And all I want is too fall in love with a mind I just wanna tell you off,
Oh, I want you to know 'bout yourself, I just wanna tell you off,
I want you to know that you ain't right I really gotta tell you
I really gotta tell you
I just wanna tell you off
I just wanna tell you off Been hopin' and wishin' that lately you feelin'
The same thing I'm feelin' when you sleep at night
Know that you thinkin', I know that you thinkin'
Now what am I doin' with these girls at night
Nothin' with them, oh girl we were so serious
Not fuckin' up and we had right here
This situation it's so damn complex
You open your legs for somebody that don't even care I just wanna tell you off,
Oh, I want you to know 'bout yourself, I just wanna tell you off,
I want you to know that you ain't right I really gotta tell you
I really gotta tell you
I just wanna tell you off
I just wanna tell you off
