

Are You Happy

Bipolar Sunshine

[Verse 1]

Holding it all
When it's all clear
And the writing's on the wall
When you're tryna figure out the meaning for everything
But everything is designed to fall
You raise your guard
As you remember the scars
Tryna let go, but it's hard
Knowing it's the only way you can move on
But you struggle to see no light in the dark
You change your ways
You find a different route for the maze
Try something new and it pays
Know you feel like, "How the fuck did I ever allow myself
To ever get stuck on this page?"
Now you're moving on
Leaving all despair in its wake
Sometimes a lil' pain is all it takes
And that's all it takes

[Chorus]

So tell me, are you happy?
Are you living in a world of broken hearts?
Tell me, are you happy?
Let's get happy
So tell me, are you happy?
Are you living in a world of broken hearts?
Tell me, are you happy?
Let's get happy

[Verse 2]

Holding it all
When it's all clear
And the writing's on the wall
When you're tryna figure out the meaning for everything
But everything is designed to fall
You raise your guard
As you remember the scars
Tryna let go, but it's hard

Knowing it's the only way you can move on
But you struggle to see no light in the dark

[Chorus]

So tell me, are you happy?
Are you living in a world of broken hearts?
Tell me, are you happy?
Let's get happy
So tell me, are you happy?
Are you living in a world of broken hearts?
Tell me, are you happy?
Let's get happy

[Bridge]

After everything has happened
I feel your touch
The past is just a ladder
That we all decide to run

[Pre-Chorus]

So tell me, are you happy?
Tell me, are you happy?
Let's get happy

[Chorus]

So tell me, are you happy?
Are you living in a world of broken hearts?
Tell me, are you happy?
Let's get happy
