

Broken

Jake Bugg

I'll
Wait here
For you
For I'm broken
Down
I'm coming down
This town
For my heart lies
Far and away where they took you down
Let them over to your house
Where I'm broken
Down by the people if they let you breathe
Don't give a damn if you still can't see
Still my heart beats
For you
Have become
All I lost
And all I hoped for
But I
Must carry on Always one
Never broken
Run to the lobby where I saw you try
Don't give a damn for your reasons why
Where soul feels
Down in the valley where the church bells cry
I'll leave them over to your eyes
Woah
I am one
I am one
Break
Story of
Peace and love
In a future
Bright
Sacrifice
Came around
Never broken
Down by the people if they let you breath
Don't give a damn if you still can't see
Travelling a street that I did not go
Wheels like tong to the winter lope

Down in the valley where the church bells cry

I'll leave them over to your eyes

Woah

I am one

Woah

I am one

I am one.
