

Passenger

Imad Royal

My body is the ship
Your soul is the passenger
So let me take a trip down
Let me take a trip down to you

They say it's such a small world
But often I feel lost and empty
They say it's such a cruel world
But one good heart is plenty

My body is the ship
Your soul is the passenger
So let me take a trip down
Let me take a trip down to you

They say it's such a small world
But often I feel lost and empty
They say it's such a cruel world
But one good heart is plenty
