

Learning to Live

Mr Hudson

[Chorus]

I'm learning to live without your love
Day by day, day by day
I'm learning to live without your love
Day by day, day by day

[Verse 1]

You kicked me in the teeth
As I was heading for the door
I can see you speak
But I can't hear you anymore, no I can't hear you anymore

[Pre-Chorus 1]

Unexpected tears (Unexpected tears)
From our faces fall (From our faces fall)
For years we've talked this through
But I look at you and you look at me, anyone can see

[Chorus]

I'm learning to live without your love
Each day by day, each day by day
I'm learning to live without your love
Each day by day, each day by day

[Verse 2]

Take a look around your yard and you ask yourself
What can't I leave behind
They're just things after all
And you don't need things anymore, no you don't need things anymore

[Pre-Chorus 2]

It's funny how much junk (Oh-oh-oh-oh)
Into one trunk can fit (Oh-oh-oh-oh)
I knew this day would come
When I look at you and you look at me, anyone can see

[Chorus]

I'm learning to live without your love
Each day by day, each day by day
I'm learning to live without your love

Each day by day, oh each day by day

[Bridge]

Where in the world will I go, I don't know
Anywhere but here
Where in the world will I go, I don't know
Anywhere but here
Where in the world will I go, I don't know
Anywhere but here
Where in the world will I go, I don't know
Anywhere but here
So where in the world will I go, I don't know
Anywhere but here
Where in the world will I go, I don't know
Anywhere but here, oh

[Refrain]

Memories, they are so sweet
I started thinking, maybe this love is unique
Memories, they are so sweet
I started thinking, that this love is unique
Memories, they are so sweet
I started thinking, stupid me, I started thinking, never think, I started thinking
Memories, they are so sweet
I started thinking, never think, I started thinking, never think, I started thinking
