February 1994
Coldest valentine, LA's ever known
All I gave you
Were tears without a cause
And I don't know why I could not say
The words inside my heart

I need you
You are my life, I love you
Heaven is mine, I want you, I
I want you to hear me
More than my life I love you
More than the sky I need you, I
I want you, I

All your roses faded from the light
Hang in my window
To remind me of the night
I said nothing and you faded away
I'd give anything to take back all the things I did not say

I want you, more than the sun I need you
Heaven is mine, I want you, I
I want you, I
Hear me, you are my life
I love you
More than the sky, I want you, I
I want you, I

And I know that if you'd come to me
Like you did before

I love you, swear I would always need you
You are my life, I want you, I
I need you, I
Hear me, more than my life, I love you
More than the sky, I need you, I
I want you, I

I, I, I, I
