

Fallen

Bret Michaels

Wasted Days and Wasted nights,
I feel lonely.
I walk these streets and wonder why
I ever listened to them say
"You are not the one for me"
But they were wrong
They don't see the things I see When everyone turns to go
I won't leave you
When everything new gets old
I won't listen
When everyone says
I'll be better alone
I say this heart has a mind of it's own
mmmm mmmm mmm mmmm
When I see you across the room
Time stands still Everytime I undress you
My heart starts to fall
In my arms, lay with me, a little while
Let the world just fade away - You and Me. When everyone turns to go
I won't leave you
When everything new gets old
I won't listen
When everyone says
I'll be better alone
I say this heart has a mind of it's own Let the world come crashing down - You can smile, cos you know that I won't let you down
Let me be the only sound, You can hear Fall in my arms and lay with me - a little while
Let the world just fade away - You and Me When everyone turns to go
I won't leave you
When everything new gets old
I won't listen
When everyone says
I'll be better alone
I say this heart has a mind of it's own When everyone turns to go
I won't leave you
When everything new gets old
I won't listen
When everyone says
I'll be better alone

mmmm mmmm mmm mmmm
mmmm mmmm mmm mmmm
