

Funky Tonk

Blanco Brown

[Verse 1]

I woke up cold, sweating, a little tipsy with a circle on my eye
Never knew?what?quite hit me,?but I know it came from?a distance
I took my feelings out of the front seat, then I set 'em by my side
Somehow those son guns got away

[Pre-Chorus]

Mama always told me that if you gotta make sure
Then you better make sure that you make the best of your mistakes
Uh, and if you lead with your heart, you need to be smart
You gotta careful, you better be looking both ways (Ooh, ooh)

(Chorus)

Been sipping on that old Jack Loud pack
That brown'll make you frown ad then you jump off in the crowd
And you don't hold back, no slack
Let's party 'til the sun go down, and make sure that you're in it
Don't you hope back, no Jack
Just don't get 'hind that wheel and party like you never did
And don't you fall short, be smart
And party, party party, it's your day

[Non-Lyrical Vocals]

[Verse 2]

I passed out in my '65
In park, couldn't drive, no keys
No lie, blue lights in eyes
First thought I had was a DUI
But the cop told me I had no tires
Somehow I missed it all, oh, I was gone, oh, I was gone
Had to hide my bottle quick, oh, I was wrong, I was wrong
Stepped out of my car which was somehow on bricks
Thank God that day I couldn't move her lick

[Pre-Chorus]

Mama always told me that if you gotta make sure
Then you better make sure that you make the best of your mistakes
Uh, and if you lead with your heart, you need to be smart

You gotta careful, you better be looking both ways (Ooh, ooh)

(Chorus)

Been sipping on that old Jack Loud pack
That brown'll make you frown ad then you jump off in the crowd
And you don't hold back, no slack
Let's party 'til the sun go down, and make sure that you're in it
Don't you hope back, no Jack
Just don't get 'hind that wheel and party like you never did
And don't you fall short, be smart
And party, party party, it's your day
