

Bluebirds

Life Of Dillon

[Verse 1]

Please speak your mind
I wanna know what's going on inside
These colors fade to black and white
Dying young, walking broken lines

[Pre-Chorus]

Now I'll pick it up, don't cry for me
Yeah, tell me what a pawn won't do for his queen
Said I'm lighting up my aces high in paradise
Yeah, we're just a couple bluebirds wasting time

[Chorus]

No one's ever loved like you
I wanna go home, I wanna grow old with you
With every day that's going past, you keep me falling hard
Said no one's ever loved me like you

[Verse 2]

Please speak your mind
I wonder think you'll think of me sometimes
Oh, my heavy heart's enough to weigh me down
But I've been drifting on these ocean tides

[Pre-Chorus]

So pick it up and smile for me
Yeah, tell me what a pawn won't do for his queen
We've been lighting up our aces high in paradise
Yeah, we're just a couple bluebirds wasting time

[Chorus]

No one's ever loved like you
I wanna go home, I wanna grow old with you
With every day that's going past, you keep me falling hard
Said no one's ever loved me like you
