

Count on Me (feat. Banoffee)

L8LOOMER

[Verse 1: L8LOOMER] This generation is different, we afraid to love Or afraid to show it, we had emotions so good But you taught me like lessons Gemstones protect me, tell me sex Is this about a sex? But more spiritual connection Words is as wise as confucius You helped me with evolution With all the love that we make God, our babies might be quadruplets I showed you Icy by Gucci You put me on Kali Uchis We come from different backgrounds But still connected through music, I swear [Chorus: L8LOOMER] When we met, caught a flight Different lives with open minds When I let you inside You showed me love You gave me life When that light shines it feels like the early morn' And when that light shines you know I just want some more [Verse 2: L8LOOMER] I could put you in a Range I could put you in the 'Cedes Never material things It's about quality time on a daily And you remember all the little things I forget My queen always keep the game in check As it were in chess, we a perfect match You're my sanctuary (yeah), you're my Halle Berry (yeah) You're my Jessabelle (yeah), you're my Virgin Mary (yeah) You're my much adored, you're my forevermore and my temporary (yeah) All of this happened because of that date back in February, yeah [Alternative Chorus: L8LOOMER & Banoffee] When we met, caught a flight Different lives with open minds When I let you inside You showed me love You gave me life When we met, caught a flight Different lives with open minds (with open mind) When I let you inside (let you inside) You showed me love [Verse 3: Banoffee] You can count on me that's for sure Now watch me take it right You were bound to see where we go Right now's the perfect time You can count on me that's for sure Now watch me take it right You were bound to see where we go Right now's the perfect time [Outro] Right now's the perfect time Right now's the perfect time
