

The Truth

Kygo & Valerie Broussard

I'm having thoughts again
"Hey, are we more than friends?"
Been trying to say those words for days
'Cause I've been noticing
That when I look at you
You turn your head and look away
Been dancing 'round the feeling in the dark
Can't get it out, why can't you tell me now
Oh, I've been up all night wondering why you lied
When your heart's saying more than you do
I feel it every time that I look in your eyes
Your heart ain't what I always knew
And that's the truth
And that's the truth
And that's the truth
And that's the truth
And that's the truth
Those things we coulda said
On loop inside my head
It's with me everywhere I go
Might be your mistake
Well that's a risk I'll take
If I don't ask, I'll never know
Been dancing 'round the feeling in the dark
Can't get it out, why can't you tell me now
I've been up all night wondering why you lied
When your heart's saying more than you do
I feel it every time that I look in your eyes
Your heart ain't what I always knew
And that's the truth
And that's the truth
And that's the truth
And that's the truth
And that's the truth
And that's the truth
And that's the truth
