

In a Truck Right Now

Riley Green

[Verse 1]

His little feet can't reach the pedal so daddy works the gas and brakes
Nine years old, "10 and 2," tryin' everything to keep it straight
Dreamin' he's Dale Earnhardt, outside of some little town
Somewhere in a truck right now

[Verse 2]

Worked all summer for those mud tires, some tint, and a three inch lift
Tryin' to catch a buzz from a couple Buds they stole from daddy's fridge
Bed full of buddies, a cab full of smoke and a cooler loaded down
Somewhere in a truck right now

[Chorus]

There's freedom in the headlights, and Hank comin' out the dash
Left arm out the window, and straight pipes out the back
There's a good ol' boy like me out there, just proud to be drivin' around
Somewhere in a truck right now

[Verse 3]

17, got his daddy's keys, he knows the trouble he's in
'Cause that piece of Heaven ridin' shotgun supposed to be home by 10:00
But it's way past midnight, parked on the edge of town
Somewhere in a truck right now

[Chorus]

There's freedom in the headlights, and Hank comin' out the dash
Left arm out the window, and straight pipes out the back
There's a good ol' boy like me out there, just proud to be drivin' around
Somewhere in a truck right now
Somewhere in a truck right now

[Bridge]

When I close my eyes, I go there in my mind
And I'm rollin' through those Alabama pines
Somewhere in a truck right now

[Chorus]

There's freedom in the headlights, and Hank comin' out the dash
Left arm out the window, with straight pipes out the back
There's a good ol' boy like me out there, just proud to be drivin' around

Somewhere in a truck right now
Somewhere in a truck right now
Somewhere in a truck right now
Somewhere in a truck right now
