

Matter

for KING & COUNTRY

[Verse 1]

All of the dreams that haven't come true
And all of the hurt that happened to you
It matters, I hope you know it matters
You felt the pain of a bitter defeat
Where the weight of the grief is more bitter than sweet
It matters, I'm telling you it matters

[Chorus]

To the One who spoke and set the sun ablaze
To the One who stopped the storm and walked the waves
To the One who took the tree so He could say
You matter, I hope you know you matter

[Verse 2]

I know it's not easy, not saying it's fair
But close as a prayer somebody cares
You're a treasure, I hope you know you're treasured
So hold your head high, wait for the dawn
Keep hanging on, your sadness will turn into laughter
Watch it turn into laughter, yeah

[Chorus]

To the One who spoke and set the sun ablaze
To the One who stopped the storm and walked the waves
To the One who took the tree so He could say
You matter, I hope you know you matter

[Bridge]

You matter, heaven knows you matter
Let the water spill from your eyes
Let it wash the wounds of those lies
Oh, let the water spill from your eyes
All that you are, all that you'll be Someone put the beat in your heart so that you'll see
You matter
(Matter, matter, I hope you know you matter, matter, matter)

[Chorus]

To the One who spoke and set the sun ablaze

To the One who stopped the storm and walked the waves
To the One who took the tree so He could say
You matter, I hope you know you matter

[Outro]

You matter, heaven knows you matter
You matter, I hope you know you matter
You matter, heaven knows you matter
You matter, heaven knows you matter (matter)
