

Get To Know Me

Anitta & Alesso

You wanna skip the conversation
Sayin' you're getting impatient
Boy, you must have me mistaken 'Cause you gotta make worth my time
I can judge in first impressions
You'll be wanting my attention
So if you got the right intention
Maybe I might let you change my mind You got your foot down on the paddle
Now you planning how to make a move
Trying anything to get me next to you
I know you wanna get to know me
But I ain't sure if you can handle it
Can you read it on my body?
I know you wanna taste it on my lips
Show me what you could afford me
Tell me all about the benefits
I know you wanna get to know me
But I ain't sure if you can handle it Know you want the lights down low and my clothes off
Pretty little thing on your arm you can show off
It's gonna take more than a drink, you should know that
You should know that, you should know that
You gonna have to put in more in a minute
Treat me like a queen, show me now that you're in it
Will you stick around through the night
If you get it, if you get it, yeah
You got your foot down on the paddle
Now you planning how to make a move
Trying anything to get me next to you I know you wanna get to know me
But I ain't sure if you can handle it
Can you read it on my body?
I know you wanna taste it on my lips
Show me what you could afford me
Tell me all about the benefits
I know you wanna get to know me
But I ain't sure if you can handle it I know you wanna know me
Put you body on my body
Trying anything to get me next to you
I know you wanna know me
Put you body on my body
Trying anything to get me next to you
