

Lucian Leads the League of Legends

Dan Bull

[Verse One]

Look

Everybody dies, some just need a little help
Death is a mercy and I've enough to go around

So when I pull my guns out

Don't duck on my account

I must just muck around and shoot a smiley face into the fucking ground

Trick shot?

The trick is not to get shot

Mix rock with hip-hop on top of a sick drop

You don't have the heart for this and you don't know the half of this

With half a heart I miss my love so much I can't exist

I was never not together with Senna

Until Thresh rolled up, and stole her soul forever

Fuck Hecarim and Thresh

They're in a mess with Mordekaiser

Relentlessly pursue them and then shoot until I've torn 'em right up

For a hired gun

Taking your life is violent fun

Don't try and run

Cause I decide when you and I are done

Killing the undead

Until it is sunset

And still I'm not done yet

Piercing you would be a delight

So I use the piercing light

My finger's on Q, the Lightslinger, might sting your ears and eyes

My bars amaze, my ardent blaze, will leave you bleeding, scarred and grazed

The closest I ever get to remorse

Feeling regret for Hecarim's horse

You're talking the talk, while I'm walking the walk

So to me

You're just another corpse!
