

Push Play (feat. Miriam Bryant)

Zedd

With my words across your face
You're making up stories of your own
Little bits of white paper
In pockets deeper than you know You painted black upon the whitest lies
You've seen them fall, you have seen them rise
You painted black upon the whitest lies, lies, your lies Push play, stop rewind
You drown your heroes in red wine
Push play, stop rewind,
You drown your heroes in red wine
Push play, stop rewind
You drown your heroes in red wine
Push play, stop rewind. You painted black upon the whitest lies
You've seen them fall, you have seen them rise
You painted black upon the whitest lies, lies, your lies
Push play, stop rewind
You drown your heroes in red wine
Push play, stop rewind
You drown your heroes in red wine Close enough to see your hands sneaking out of his embrace
Paper thin, whispering, breaking in You painted black upon the whitest lies
You've seen them fall, you have seen them rise
You painted black upon the whitest lies, lies, your lies Push play, stop rewind
You drown your heroes in red wine
Push play, stop rewind
You drown your heroes in red wine
Push play, stop rewind
You drown your heroes in red wine
Push play, stop rewind
You drown your heroes in red wine
(Push play, stop rewind) Push play, stop rewind
You drown your heroes in red wine
Push play, stop rewind
