

Moving Along

5 Seconds of Summer

Thinking 'bout you lots, lately
Have you been eating breakfast alone like me
Thinking 'bout you lots, lately[Verse 1: Calum]
Is it bad that I'm hoping that you're broken
Is it bad that I'm wishing you're so broken
That you haven't found fish in the ocean
Is it bad, so bad
Is it weird that I'm drunk and on my sofa
Is it weird that I'm naked on my sofa
All alone, damn, I wish I didn't know ya
Is it weird, so weird
[Pre Chorus: Luke]
I know I'm the stupid one who ended it
And now I'm the stupid one regretting it
It took me a couple drinks to admit it
I know I'm the stupid one[Chorus: All]
Thinking 'bout you lots, lately
Have you been eating breakfast alone like me
Thinking 'bout you lots, lately
Or are you moving along
Thinking 'bout you lots, lately
Have you been feeling empty beds just like me
Thinking 'bout you lots, lately
Or are you moving along
[Verse 2: Luke]
Is it wrong if I ask you to come over
Is it wrong if I tell you that I love ya
Even though I never do it when I'm sober
Is it wrong? So wrong[Pre Chorus: Luke]
I know I'm the stupid one who ended it
And now I'm the stupid one regretting it
It took me a couple drinks to admit it
I know I'm the stupid one[Chorus: All]
Thinking 'bout you lots, lately
Have you been eating breakfast alone like me
Thinking 'bout you lots, lately
Or are you moving along
Thinking 'bout you lots, lately
Have you been feeling empty beds just like me
Thinking 'bout you lots, lately
Or are you moving along[Bridge: Luke]
Scared of moving on, but you're already gone

So if you're moving on, won't you just tell me
Scared of moving on, but you're already gone
So if you're moving on, won't you just tell me[Chorus: All]
Thinking 'bout you lots, lately
Have you been eating breakfast alone like me
Thinking 'bout you lots, lately
Or are you moving along
Thinking 'bout you lots, lately
Have you been feeling empty beds just like me
Thinking 'bout you lots, lately
Or are you moving along
Scared of moving on, but you're already gone
So if you're moving on, are you moving along
