Ed Sheeran

This is the start of something beautiful
This is the start of something new
You are the one that will make me lose it all
You are the start of something new And I'll throw it all away
And watch you fall into my arms again
And I'll throw it all away
And watch you fall, now You are the earth I will stand upon
You are the words I will sing
And I've thrown it all away
And watched you fall into his arms again
And I've thrown it all away
And watched you fall, now
And take me back
Take me home
Watch me fall, down to earth
Take me back For this is the start of something beautiful
You are the start of something new
