

Carry On

Lil Nas X

[Intro]

F-f-freezin' like the fuckin' winter

[Chorus: Bobby Caldwell]

Carry on

Though it may be hard to understand it

You've got to carry on

Carry on

Though it may be hard to understand it

You've got to carry on

(F-f-freezin' like the fuckin' winter)

[Refrain: Lil Nas X]

My flow so cold, you notice it (Notice it)

My dreams unfold, behold this shit ('Hold this shit)

Had my life rearranged, it's strange as shit

Not the same as before, I changed a bit

[Verse 1: Lil Nas X]

How you leave your son all alone?

See you every other month

Can you hit a nigga phone?

Mama, can't believe you let that nigga

Turn you from your home

You ain't even who you used to be

The person that I've known

Guess I have to carry on (F-f-freezin' like the fuckin' winter)

[Chorus: Bobby Caldwell]

Carry on

Though it may be hard to understand it

You've got to carry on

Carry on

Though it may be hard to understand it

You've got to carry on

[Refrain: Lil Nas X]

My flow so cold, you notice it (Notice it)

My dreams unfold, behold this shit ('Hold this shit)

Had my life rearranged, it's strange as shit

Not the same as before, I changed a bit

[Verse 2: Lil Nas X]

Worry 'bout my health
Bad thoughts, when I'm gonna die?
I like to get high 'cause it distract me when I wonder why
'Fore my grandma died, I wasn't there, I wasn't by her side
Knew that she was dying
Didn't put my selfish shit aside (F-f-freezin' like the fuckin' winter)

[Chorus: Bobby Caldwell]

Carry on
Though it may be hard to understand it
You've got to carry on
Carry on
Though it may be hard to understand it
You've got to carry on (F-f-freezin' like the fuckin' winter)

[Verse 3: Lil Nas X]

My grandma died, I shed some tears
My mama lied, she left me here
I keep secrets, can't tell a soul
Trust me and myself, that's all I know
My family split, can't live like this
No reunion shit, just who that is
I just pretend it's all okay
I'ma kill everything that's in my way

[Refrain: Lil Nas X]

My flow so cold, I must admit
My dreams unfold, behold this shit
Had my life rearranged, it's strange as shit
And not the same as before, I changed a bit (F-f-freezin' like the fuckin' winter)

[Chorus: Bobby Caldwell]

Carry on
Though it may be hard to understand it
You've got to carry on
Carry on
Though it may be hard to understand it
You've got to carry on
