

The Life

Fisher

I listened to you from your pedestal
Telling us all how your world was full of shit
Why couldn't you bow and say "Thank you all"
To everyone who made you what you are
It sent my heart, hurt, crashing down
Cuz these are my dreams you're bashing You're living the life
Can't you see you are living the life?
You're living the life that I only dream The kingdom you own, does it drag you down?
I'll gladly relieve you of your big shiny crown
You say it's so frustrating now
I can't believe you're faking
Living the life
Seems to me you are living the life
You're living the wonderful, wonderful life Tell me (Tell me), Would you (Would you)
Really (Really), rather be a nobody, nobody knows? You're living the life
Don't you see you are living the life?
You're living the life that I wanted Living the life
Please don't tell me my dream is a lie
Cuz this is the way that I fill my heart Fill my heart Fly away home. Go on and go. Fly away home. Go. Go.
You're living the life
You're living the life that I wanted
You're Living the life
You're living the life that I wanted That I wanted. That I wanted. That I wanted.
