

Sing Your Song

Kari Kimmel

When the clock stricks once again
Taking you into the night so cold
The night that calls
The half dreams and the moonlight

All around you, you will see
Everything you wish that you could be
And makes you hide
The stories skies surround you

So sing your song
The higher you fall
Just keep on singing na na na (na, na, na, na, na-ah)
Don't wait for your light
There's nothing to hide
Just keep on singing through it all
When you fall, sing na na na

You still turning in your bed
When the sunlight sweeps across your face
That takes the place
Of everything you dreamed of
Now it's time to live again
Pick a key and harm to simple to he wrote for you
The one the that's picks of true love

So sing your song
The higher you fall
Just keep on singing na na na (na, na, na, na, na-ah)
Don't wait for your light
There's nothing to hide
Just keep on singing through it all
When you fall, sing na na na

So sing your song
The higher you fall
Just keep on singing na na na (na, na, na, na, na-ah)
Don't wait for your light
Just keep on singing through it all

When you fall, sing na na na

So sing your song
The higher you fall
Just keep on singing na na na (na, na, na, na, na-ah)
Don't wait for your light
Just keep on singing through it all
When you fall, sing na na na

Keep holding on, don't fall asleep
Hold on to what you know it's real
It's all gonna be, it's gonna be all right

Keep holding on, don't fall asleep
Hold on to what you know it's real
It's all gonna be, it's gonna be all right

Keep holding on, don't fall asleep
Hold on to what you know it's real
It's all gonna be, it's gonna be all right

Sing na, sing na na na na na

Keep holding on, don't fall asleep
Hold on to what you know it's real
It's all gonna be, it's gonna be all right
