

Red Flags

Andra Day

I stood outside for hours thinking why
But you meant no harm you say
Salty tears but my face last night
But you meant no harm you say
It was always me waiting on you with a cruel guessing game
You meant no harm you say
Now my soul drags behind my feet but I'll be fine I guess
You meant no harm you say
Still runnin' it back in my mind tryna see why I was so bloody blind so I
I should've known that I'd lose everything
I should've known red flags were warnin' me
(Oh ahh)
I couldn't see all that when the room was pitch black
To you'd come and go
You'd come and go
I spent my time with photos from back when
But you meant no harm you say
I give your lies five stars were on display
Cause you meant no harm you say
The truth was never a good friend of yours or mine
I guess it's still no harm you say
A past or a sea shattered to oblivion you meant no harm you say
Still running it back in my mind try to see why I was so bloody blind
So blind
I should've known that I'd lose everything
I should've red flags were warning me
I couldn't see all that cause the room was pitch black
Are good intentions all you really have left for me
(Have left for me)
Can they cover the hole you left here in my heart
(Cover the big hole)
Oh well what more can I say I should've known that I'd lose everything
I should've known red flags were warnin' me
I couldn't see all that cause the room was pitch black
Room was pitch black oh
(Should've known better known babe)
I should've know that you'd take everything
(My heart)
I should've known to kiss my heart away
I should've known red flags were warnin' me
You'd come and go

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <https://www.songlyrics.band/>