

Magnets (feat. Sophie Simmons)

Sam Feldt

[Verse 1]

I thought that I told you

That was the last time

Can't make up my damn mind

You're too good to lose

You tear me apart

With all of your bullshit

Some reason I can't quit

I just can't refuse

[Pre-Chorus]

And, uh-oh, we're back again, back again

Even though we're trying, we never win

We're running, we're fighting

And even though we're trying, we never win

[Chorus]

We're magnets, magnets

Pull us apart, pull us apart

And we're coming back again

I'm positive, you're negative

Pull us apart, pull us apart

And we're coming back again

[Post-Chorus]

(And we're coming back again)

[Verse 2]

I thought that I lost you

Holding on too tight

I fucked it up last time

But now that we're good

You told me it's better

When we're together

And that's all that matters

And that's all that should

[Pre-Chorus]

And, uh-oh, we're back again, back again

Even though we're trying, we never win

We're running, we're fighting

And even though we're trying, we never win

[Chorus]

We're magnets, magnets
Pull us apart, pull us apart
And we're coming back again
I'm positive, you're negative
Pull us apart, pull us apart
And we're coming back again

[Post-Chorus]

And we're coming back again

[Bridge]

Can't fault the science, baby, I'm trying
I just can't stand it, I guess we're magnets
So, uh-oh, we're back again, back again
Even though we're trying, we never win

[Chorus]

We're magnets, magnets
Pull us apart, pull us apart
And we're coming back again
I'm positive, you're negative
Pull us apart, pull us apart
And we're coming back again

[Post-Chorus]

(And we're coming back again)
