Mind Reader

Dustin Lynch

How'd you know to wear your like that How'd you know to turn up that song How'd you know those little tore up jeans was gonna tear me up and turn me on Girl its like you know me too good but you barely know me at all Yeah the way its going tonight you probably know I'm ready to fallBaby you're a little mine, baby you're a little mind reader, yeah thats what you are
You play it off a little shy but baby you're a heart stealer
Its like you knew that smile was gonna melt me down,
Its like you knew those lips are what I'm needing right now
And girl when you lay em on mine,
Yeah its like your reading my mind
Girl its like you got a crystal ball
Like you got a little gypsy side Its like you knew that sweet perfume that you got on was gonna get me high Well how'd you know what I'm thinking right now How'd you know what i was about to say How'd you know to whisper in my ear l
Let's take this party back to my placeBaby you're a little mine, baby you're a little mind reader,
yeah thats what you are
You play it off a little shy but baby you're a heart stealer
Its like you knew that smile was gonna melt me down,
Its like you knew those lips are what I'm needing right now
And girl when you lay em on mine,
Yeah its like your reading my mind
Its like you knew just when to lead on in And take my hand like you had it all planned
And girl you've got me figured out, dontcha now?Baby you're a little mine, baby you're a little mind reader,
yeah thats what you are You play it off a little shy but baby you're a hear stealer
Its like you knew that smile was gonna melt me down,
Its like you knew those lips are what I'm needing right now
And girl when you lay em on mine,
Yeah its like your reading my mind
Baby you're a little mind reader
