

Same Bitches (feat. G-Eazy & YG)

Post Malone

I been in L.A. too long
I see the same bitches everywhere I go
It don't really matter where they from
Acting or model, heard it all before
Population four million, how I see the same bitch?
Population four million, how I see the same bitch?
Yeah, yeah, yeah I hit your DM baby
Took the screenshot, yeah, you tried to play me
I bet this shit was good for your reputation
I just let it go so I could see you naked
Holy moly, look what you roll in
Million followers but your bumpers broken
What's your focus?
Tell me what your goal is
I know you only like me 'cause I just spent a hundred bands in one night
Spent a hundred bands in one night
I know you wanna live this life
But I can't make a ho a housewife (ohh, no)
What's your name? Who's your daddy?
Is he rich like me? Is he rich like me?
Yeah, yeah, yeah I been in L.A. too long
I see the same bitches everywhere I go
It don't really matter where they from
Acting or model, heard it all before
Population four million, how I see the same bitch? (uh, yeah)
Yeah, yeah, yeah Population four million, how I see the same bitch? (Gerald)
Yeah, yeah, yeah Everywhere I go I see the same ho
Always post selfies on the 'Gram from a angle, a Catfish
Hollywood devil, not a angel
Her bag is Chanel, but she drive a Durango
Yeah, and I'm gettin' to the queso
Woke and I'm hip to the game so I'm thankful
OGs put me on to a song lace bro
Real recognizin' that you don't speak the lingo
Clothes all new, not a wrinkle
Giving you the game with the game, gettin' sprinkled
Bottles on deck in my drink fool
And I turn to a beast, I'm a dog, I'm a pitbull
This life did to me, I can't switch back
If I take her then you'll never get your bitch back (yeah)
The beat knockin', yeah this shit cloud
