

Feels

Anna of the North

Hold on to me, I've been thinking 'bout you
Thinking 'bout what we've been through
And I feel so tired, feeling like I'm want through
Feeling like a loosen hole to few
Oh no, oh no, feels like you're not even trying
Oh no, oh no, you moved on, stop denying Feels like, feels like we're lost in the dark now
Now that we're drifting apart (feels like, feels like)
Feels like a storm in my heart (feels like, feels like)
Don't you know you make me feel like
Feel like I'm falling apart now?
You got a hold of my heart (feels like, feels like)
Feels like a storm in my heart (feels like, feels like)
I was reaching out, wondering how we fell through
Wondering if I was too good to you
We just scream and shout, say it's time to face truth
Does it matter what I wanna do?
I remember how it felt so good with you
Now I'm feeling like a shadow in the room
Oh no, oh no, just a shadow in the room Feels like, feels like we're lost in the dark now
Now that we're drifting apart (feels like, feels like)
Feels like a storm in my heart (feels like, feels like)
Don't you know you make me feel like
Feel like I'm falling apart now?
You got a hold of my heart (feels like, feels like)
Feels like a storm in my heart (feels like, feels like)
Feels like, feels like we're lost in the dark now
Now that we're drifting apart (feels like, feels like)
Feels like a storm in my heart (feels like, feels like)
Don't you know you make me feel like
I remember how it felt so good with you
(Feels like, feels like)
Now I'm feeling like a shadow in the room
(Feels like, feels like)
Feels like a storm in my heart
(Feels like, feels like, feels like)
