I Know Alone

HAIM

Been a couple days since I've been out
Calling all my friends but they won't pick?up
Found?another room in?a different place
Sleeping through the day?and I dream the same(I don't wanna)
I don't wanna give
I?don't?wanna?give too much
I?don't wanna feel
I?don't wanna feel at all
'Cause nights turn into days
That turn to grey
Keep turning over
Some things never grow
I know alone like no one else doesSome things never change
They never fade
It's never over
Some things never grow
I know alone like no one else does
Been a couple days since I've been around
Woke up at the wheel on the edge of town
It all looked the same every mile
Screaming every word of
