

Purple Skirt

Brandon Beal

Do you believe in second chances,
Cause I swear I seen you before baby,
You may not remember me but I swear I'd never forget you,
And I told myself that if I was to ever see you again yo,
I was gonna roll up on you, I was gonna come up to you,
And I was gon say something like this right here (something like this right here, something like this)

[Verse 1:]

Do you remember me? think it was a saturday,
Prettiest face I ever seen was yours,
I let you get away didn't know the words to say,
Tought you looked but I just wasn't sure,
Now this may seem kinda crazy but I remember everything,
Even that purple skirt you wore,
And before you walk again let me know your name and then maybe we can talk a little more

[Chorus:]

If you're listening what I'm saying is,
The prettiest face I ever seen was yours
Baby let's make love have some ghetto kids,
Let me up in that purple skirt you wore
[x2]

[Verse 2:]

Do you remember me we met in my fantasy,
We made love at least a million times,
You got on top of me,
You may not recall the scene,
Cause it only happened in my mind,
Now this may seem kinda crazy,
But if we do this baby,
Put it on you like a n**** should,
And before you walk away again,
Let me know your name and then maybe I can give you something good
Ohhhh

[Chorus:]

If you're listening what I'm saying is,
The prettiest face I ever seen was yours
Baby let's make love have some ghetto kids,
Let me up in that purple skirt you wore

[x2]
Aww baby

[Bridge:]

And you just might take all night but I'll make you happy (wanna be happy baby),
And you might n** me all night and call me your daddy(call call call call me daddy baby [x2]),
And I just might be the man,
I might just be the only man you need,
So baby what the problem is,
And baby ain't it obvious,
Because

[Chorus:]

If you're listening what I'm saying is(what I'm saying baby),
The prettiest face I ever seen was yours (the prettiest face I ever seen),
Baby let's make love have some ghetto kids,
Let me up in that that purple skirt you wore (Some ghetto little babies, ghetto little ohh uhuh ohhh)

If you're listening what I'm saying is,
The prettiest face I ever seen was yours
Baby let's make love (oh) have some ghetto kids (oh),
Let me up in that purple(oh)skirt you wore

The prettiest face I ever seen was yours,
Let me open that purple skirt you wore [x2]
