

Need Your Love

Gryffin, Seven Lions & Noah Kahan

I need your love Under my skin, how deep I don't even know Tried everything, but I don't anymore

Realizing, I shouldn't have let you go
Shouldn't have let you go Hardest part is knowing that I had it
Something almost perfect, we were almost perfect
Maybe it's too late for me to save this, but I gotta face this
No matter how I hate it I need your love
To give me hope when I can't breathe

I need your love
To lift me up when I am weak
I need your love
When I hate every part of me
I need your love to set me free
I need your love
I need your love
I need your love
I need your love

When I hate every part of me
I need your love to set me free
I need your love
I need your love
I need your love
I need your love

When I hate every part of me
I need your love to set me free
I need your love We got so close, but that don't mean anything
When it all comes around, I just wanna fall again
'Cause I'm in a place where, I don't feel anything
I don't feel anything

Hardest part is knowing that I had it
Something almost perfect, we were almost perfect
Maybe it's too late for me to save this, but I gotta face this
No matter how I hate it I need your love
To give me hope when I can't breathe

I need your love
To lift me up when I am weak
I need your love
When I hate every part of me
I need your love to set me free
I need your love I need your love
I need your love
I need your love tonight

I need your love, just need your love
I need your love tonight
Just need your love, need your love, need your love, your love I need your love (Love, love, love)
I need your love
I need your love
When I hate every part of me
I need your love to set me free
I need your love
