

Man I Am Today

Florida Georgia Line

[Intro]

Its a kiss from Katie on the swing set
When I was in 3rd grade
Teacher making me sit from recess
When I would mis-behave

[Verse 1]

Its a long haul to see my grandma
During the holidays
I can tell my momma loved Jesus
By the way that she said grace

[Verse 2]

Its a spring break
For me and my buddies that had to go our own way
Sunday, that I got saved
Its a class ring, that we never bought
Cause we thought we'd win state
But it didn't turn out that way
I can't complain, Its how I became
The man I am today

[Interlude]

Its a fast lane headed down the interstate
A long way from home

[Verse 3]

Loaded down with a truck full of memories
The only thing I've ever owned
Its a late night, bar fights coming in Getting pizza at 3 am

[Verse 4]

Falling in and out of love with my girlfriend
Asking God to forgive my sins again
And again

[Interlude]

It's the four years, everybody says your supposed to find yourself

And they were the best

[Verse 5]

There's the lonely tears
That I cried that night when I saw my dad die
But I know he's in a better place
So I can't complain, its how I became
The man I am today
Heyy

[Verse 6]

Cause the good Lord always seems to have a funny way
Of making you look back on your life and say
Its the white dress, walking down the isle the day I said I do
Watching our boy take his first breath

[Interlude]

Its the true love, that made it through the years
And started on a swing set, I know that I am truly blessed

[Outro]

So I can't complain, I wouldn't change a thing
Its how I became
The man I am today
The man I am today

Its a kiss from Katie on the swing set, when I was in 3rd grade

Lyrics provided by <https://www.songlyrics.band/>