5 Seconds of Summer

[Verse 1: Calum]

Is it bad that I'm hoping that you're broken
Is it bad that i'm wishing you were broken
That you haven't found fish in the ocean

Is it bad, it's so bad

Is it weird that i'm drinking on my sofa
Is it weird that i'm looking on my sofa
All alone, damn, I wish I didn't know ya
Is it weird, it's so weird[Pre Chorus: Luke]

I know i'm still the one who ends it, ay

And i'm still the one who [?]

Send me a couple drinks till [?]

You know i'm still the one

[Chorus: All]

Been thinking about you lots, lately
Have you been eating breakfast alone like me
Thinking about you lots, lately
I'm moving along

Been thinking about you lots, lately
Have you been feeling empty beds just like me
I've been thinking about you lots, lately
I'm moving along[Verse 2: Luke]

Is it wrong if I ask to see your number
Is it wrong if i tell you that I love ya
Even though I never do it when i'm sober
Is it wrong?

[Pre Chorus: Luke]

I know i'm still the one who ends it, ay
And now i'm still the one to cut a nerve
Send me a couple drinks till [?]

You know i'm still the one[Chorus: All]

Been thinking about you lots, lately
Have you been eating breakfast alone like me
Thinking about you lots, lately
I'm moving along

Been thinking about you lots, lately
Have you been feeling empty beds just like me
Thinking about you lots, lately
I'm moving along

[Bridge: Luke]

Instead of moving on, we'll try again
So if you're moving on, won't you just tell me

Scared of moving on, cause you're already gone
So if you're moving on, won't you just tell me[Chorus: All]
Been thinking about you lots, lately
Have you been eating breakfast alone like me
Thinking about you lots, lately
I'm moving along
Been thinking about you lots, lately
Have you been feeling empty beds just like me
Thinking about you lots, lately
I'm moving along
