

Every Other Memory

Ryan Hurd

[Verse 1]

I still smell the smoke from the fourth of July fireworks
And I still feel the kick drum front row at the concert
After Talladega safe to say you stick around
We were both drunk at the party when I told you that I loved you
You laughed like I was crazy but I swear, girl that's when I knew
What we had, looking back on it right now[Chorus]
That last call first kiss never left my mind
That old school Springsteen gets me every time
And when I see that leather jacket
I think about how you had it
Wrapped around your shoulder
That whole October
And that sunset barefoot fire on the beach
I can still feel your hands all over me
And when the sky lights up
Girl, it's your shade of blue
'Cause every other memory
Every other memory is you

[Verse 2]

Girl, you're every other turn down, every back road in my head
And even though it's over you're still playing hard to forget
Close my eyes and there you are Still underneath the stars[Chorus]
'Cause that last call first kiss never left my mind
That old school Springsteen gets me every time
And when I see that leather jacket
I think about how you had it
Wrapped around your shoulder
That whole October
And that sunset barefoot fire on the beach
I can still feel your hands all over me
And when the sky lights up
Girl, it's your shade of blue
'Cause every other memory
Every other memory is you

[Break]

Girl, it's you
Every other memory is you and me
Wrapped up in the summer
There will never be another
Never be another[Chorus]

Like that last call first kiss never left my mind
That old school Springsteen gets me every time
And when I see that leather jacket
I think about how you had it
Wrapped around your shoulder
That whole October
And that sunset barefoot fire on the beach
I can still feel your hands all over me
And when the sky lights up
Girl, it's your shade of blue
'Cause every other memory
Every other memory is you[Outro]
Girl, it's you
Every other memory is you and me
Tangled in the summer
There will never be another
Never be another
Like that last call first kiss
